

Camille N. Wilson Bio

Camille Wilson is a native of Toledo, Ohio and has lived in the Dallas, Texas area for over 35 years. She has been married to Kevin for 24 years and they have two beautiful children named Skylar(20) and Tysen(17).

Camille received her BA degree in Interdisciplinary Studies from the University of Texas at Dallas. She currently is the President of her company Destiny Project Management Consultants. Recently, Camille, had the honor and blessing of becoming the new Chief Executive Officer for Humanitarian Hands Charities (HHC) the non-profit her parents founded, Ray and Mary Christopher, to help HHC become a global organization that focuses in on housing, education, and wellness. Camille worked 14 years for JCPenney on both the financial planning and merchandise buying sides of the company. Camille has over 25 years of experience in project managing, training, marketing, branding, selling, and developing efficient, productive and profitable businesses. She also has more than 20 years of experience in event planning and logistical support for conferences, meetings, networking receptions and workshops for local and federal government, corporations, and non-profit organizations. For 17 years, Camille has run her own company working with small businesses to increase productivity and sales, building relationships with potential clients, project management, bringing visibility to her clients, and continuously looking for more effective and efficient ways of producing.

Camille utilizes the same passion, skills and success in business to further the work of the kingdom. She currently worships at Light of the World church of Christ. Camille has taught in God's kingdom for 30 years various ages. She has conducted ladies' bible studies, presented at symposiums, national conferences and workshops and coordinated marriage retreats. Camille believes in order to continue to strengthen the body of Christ, we have to continue to strive for excellence within ourselves and remember "to Him" we belong.

Camille's favorite scripture is Philippians 1:6 – "Being confident in this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ." She knows, no matter what may happen, God will see her through everything and will be with her until He returns or calls her home.