

ALVIN L. DANIELS, JR. — SENIOR MINISTER

Alvin L. Daniels Jr. is a native of the state of Florida. He grew up in and began his professional career in the community of Delray Beach. His spiritual journey began under the teaching of the late Brother James S. Fredrick, and he was baptized into the Church in April of 1987 under the leadership of Dr. I.C. Spivey of the 15th Avenue Church of Christ, Delray Beach, FL. Alvin L. Daniels Jr. is married to the former Cynthia R. Kinnel of Delray Beach, FL. They have three wonderful and compassionate children who love serving the Lord.

Brother Daniels began his spiritual service by attending International Bible College in Florence, Alabama. His studies emphasized doctrine and evangelism. While attending IBC, he ministered to and worked with several churches in the Alabama, Mississippi and Tennessee areas. Brother Daniels has worked extensively in the arena of at-risk and delinquent youth. He has been very involved in counseling and mentoring children in serious habitual offender programs (SHO) and he has held several supervisory positions, including Director of Children's Services in South Georgia. He holds a BA Degree in Sociology and Anthropology from Valdosta State University.

His Ministerial experiences include serving as youth minister to the Lake Ida Church of Christ of Delray Beach, FL.; Associate Minister to the Deerfield Church of Christ, Deerfield Beach, FL.; Minister to the Boca Delray Congregation, Delray Beach, FL.; Minister of the Courtland Avenue Church of Christ, Quitman, GA.; and Minister to the Pembroke Park Church of Christ in Hollywood, FL. Bro. Daniels has conducted and participated in a series of workshops, conferences, and lectureships. In addition, he has been privileged to work with various organizations and participate on several panels and platforms including the following:

- National Urban League of Young Professionals
- 5000 Role Models of Excellence
- Robert Renick Educational Center
- Faith Scholarship Foundation (Board Member)
- World Vision (Partner)
- Coalition for a Healthy South Broward (Partner)
- Tri County Leadership Group (Secretary)
- White House Faith Based Educational Initiative (Member)
- White House public engagement (Member).
- Vitas Innovative Hospice Care (Board Member)