

Edward Cribbs

Edward Cribbs has served as minister of the Oakland Church of Christ in Southfield, Michigan, since 2013. He grew up at the North Broadway Church of Christ in Mount Clemens, Michigan, where the late Dr. James E. Thompson served as his minister and was his father in the gospel; other significant mentors and influences in his life and ministry include the late John H. Mayberry Sr., longtime minister of the Conant Gardens Church of Christ in Detroit, and the late Dr. Andrew J. Hairston, minister of the Simpson Street Church of Christ in Atlanta, Georgia. A retired educator from the Detroit Public School Community District, he attended Morehouse College, graduated from Rochester Christian University (formerly Rochester College), and earned a master's degree in Teaching from Wayne State University, where he is currently pursuing a degree in Mortuary Science with the goal of one day owning and operating his own funeral home. He also serves as Chief Operating Officer for the National Crusade for Christ and is a member of the Morehouse College Martin Luther King Jr. International Chapel Board of Preachers. He is married to Rosalind Cribbs, and they are the proud parents of one son, Jason.
