EMANUEL WHITE, SR

SPEAKER'S BIOGRAPHY

Emanuel White, Sr. has served as the Senior Minister of the Forest Hill Church of Christ for over twenty-eight years. Emanuel was born in Detroit Michigan but was raised in Abbeville South Carolina where he received his early education. After graduation Emanuel attended South Western Christian College where he received his Associate Degree. He continued his education at Abilene Christian University. While attending South Western Christian College he met Carolyn Williams who would become his wife and in 1980 they were wedded. Emanuel and Carolyn have four sons. Emanuel is a second-generation minister. His father the late I. V. White ministered in Abbeville at the Haigler Street Church of Christ for over fifty-eight years. Under Emanuel's ministry at Forest Hill, he has ordained Elders and Deacons four separate times. His love for training and education has lead to the development of The Brotherhood of Men Conference, which meets annually, where he encourages hundred's of men from across the country and Bermuda to become all that God intended for men to become. Emanuel currently serves as the President of the Sound Doctrine Foundation, a non-profit designed to provide scholarships for college students. One of Emanuel's favorite sayings is that "God always rewards faithfulness".
