

Shalonda Dulin Bio

Worshipper, Mentor, passionate wife and mother are a few words that describe Sis. Shalonda Dulin. Shalonda Dulin is a native of Washington state but has grown to have a love for Texas. She is married to Dr. Rodney Dulin of the Central Pointe church where they serve at two locations in Dallas and Mesquite Texas. She holds a Bachelors in Sociology and a Masters in Christian Counseling. Shalonda currently works with counseling clients from both aspects of career guidance and direction as well as spiritual growth and development. Shalonda has held positions in higher education, relocation, non-profit and social service. Her greatest love is helping women recognize and reach their full potential in Christ. Shalonda is on the board of the National Preacher's Wives conference to help the next generation of 1st ladies have a voice. In early 2017 Shalonda started the "Women's University" at the Central Pointe which embodies the scripture of Titus 2:3-5 of the older women teaching the older women. This university structured program covers all topics for women including spiritual growth, cooking, goal setting, financial planning, and job readiness to name a few. Shalonda prays that the Lord will continue to utilize her unique style of teaching in the Kingdom and that women will be blessed.
