

Biographical Sketch of Dr .Steven N. Thompson, Evangelist

Dr. Steven N. Thompson's style of teaching and preaching is biblically centered and biblically based, that has provided him with a special identification in our national brotherhood. His style is simple, digestible and purges the hearts of those that listen to him.

His vision has ignited a fiery flame in both young and old as he seeks to stir their spiritual imagination. Educationally, he entered the Southwestern Christian College in 1975, graduating in 1978 with a desire to further his education. Later Steven enrolled in the University of Dallas; Dallas Texas as he sought a deeper structured education as would enhance future.

His longevity in the ministry for more than 30 years made a provocative impact upon the congregations he served: Martin, TN, Youngstown, OH, and presently serving the Central Church of Christ for the past 32 years in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. These congregations with whom he labored with received a greater depth and higher level of understanding the scriptures.

Steven is a family man who is the forth son of the late James H. Thompson of Memphis, Tennessee, who also was a Gospel Preacher. Steven was born April 5th, 1958 in Asheville, North Carolina to the union of James H. & Helen L. Thompson (both deceased). Steven was married to Deborah A. Thompson (deceased) and they have three children, LaTasha, Steven II and Chuncey.

Some of Steven's civic involvements include being the former President of the Broad and Interim Director of Milwaukee Careers Cooperative, a non-profit employment agency which provides both temporary and permanent job opportunities to the disadvantaged people in the inner city.

Furthermore, Steven has dealt with many problematic situations that has permeated and plagued communities throughout the inner city of Milwaukee, Wisconsin. His preaching method is simply to tell the story of Jesus in a practical manner to practical people, and to practice the story He tells.
