

Trey Carrion

Trey Carrion is a graduate of Abilene Christian University. He holds a bachelor's degree in biblical studies/family studies. He has been preaching and teaching the Gospel of Christ for twenty-five years. While in Abilene, Texas, Trey studied under the tutelage of Dr. Tony E. Roach, author of God's Love Bank Program and Curriculum. Since 1990, he has been involved with the Sound Doctrine Training Program at the Minda Street Church of Christ in Abilene, Texas. This class prepares deacons, elders, ministers, and their wives for ministry. Trey is formerly the minister of evangelism at Park East Church of Christ and East Denver Church of Christ in Denver, Colorado. While at both congregations, he was very successful in bringing many souls to Christ. Trey is the former teacher of the young adult class at the Simpson St. in Atlanta Ga, where he also served as one of the assisting ministers. Trey Carrion now serves as one of the assisting ministers at the Stonecrest Church of Christ, where Dr. Richard Barclay is the senior minister. Currently, Trey serves as the Director of Community Outreach and a mental health counselor for the Hope Rising Counseling agency in Atlanta, GA.
