

DonBurnell Holly has been preaching the gospel for 40 years and is currently serving as the evangelist at both the South Eastside Church of Christ, a 1.4 million recently completed facility, situated on a 4 acre campus in the heart of Southeast Memphis and the historically impactful Norris Road Church of Christ on a 23-acre site in South Memphis.

He serves as one of the Southeast Side congregation's elders. Too, he currently serves as a Tennessee Bureau of Investigation (TBI) chaplain.

Holly has spoken on multiple national, regional, state and local lectureships and is a member of the National Lectureship's advisory committee; he also is a regional staff member of the Ministers' Institute. A frequently invited speaker, his is in national demand for church leadership, seminars, and he hosted the 2016 Annual National Lectureship in Memphis, Tennessee. He has a bachelor's degree in business from the University of Memphis.

He has been married to Patricia Thompson Holly for 38 years; the couple has four adult children. An avid golfer, he retired as an enterprise/infrastructure architect advisor at the Federal Express Corporation.