

David Wilson is the dynamic Minister of the Kings Church of Christ in Brooklyn New York. He exhibits the trifacta of great gospel preaching; a love of God, a love for his people and a love for the truth. Affectionately known as “The Expositor”, David offers a unique blend of talents, passions and experiences that enable him to explain the Word of God in an exciting, informative and relevant manner. He is constantly sought after for Gospel and revival meetings, lectureships and conferences from all over the country. His teaching ministry, “Expositions of Grace”, has been featured on different TV stations as well.

David is supported by his loving wife Cathi, and their children: David Jr, Dyahnah, and Dominic. Their love, unity and happiness add great value to his teaching ministry. David teaches and believes that family is the first church.

He has obtained, an Associate’s degree from Southwestern Christian College, Bachelor’s degree from Oklahoma Christian University, and a Master’s degree in Human Services from Amridge University. David leads a Scriptural and progressive ministry at Kings. The concept of community sensitivity, taught to him by his father in the faith, Arnelious Crenshaw, has led to a multiplicity of light bearing, salt flavoring and love gifting services and programs for the community.

David is also an accomplished gospel songwriter. His compositions and arrangements are used by a`capella singing groups throughout the brotherhood, including Southwestern Christian College, Redeemed and Exodus.

Minister Wilson’s strength is connection. His understanding of Scripture, illustrative explanations, relevant applications and great sense of humor make his teaching and preaching memorable, remarkable and usable. He gives doctrine that you can see, believe and live by.
