RANDALL F. TUCKER, SR.

SPEAKER'S BIOGRAPHY

Randall F. Tucker, Sr. is the Minister of the South Union Church of Christ in Houston, Texas. Brother Tucker is a native of Nashville, Tennessee, and has been an active member of the Lord's church since his youth. He is an alumnus of Tennessee State University and the Nashville School of Preaching. In addition to his work in the ministry, he is also a motivational speaker and has been recognized on the Local, State and National levels. His past professional experiences include working in the corporate sector as a representative of the Division of Assessments, and serving as a former educator in the Public School System, teaching Science, and History on the Elementary and Secondary levels. During his tenure with the Public School system, he also served as Basketball and Volleyball coach.

This year marks his 15th year of public ministry. During this time, God has blessed him to speak on Lectureships, preach gospel meetings, and serve the Lord's church as minister of congregations in Tennessee and Texas. Our minister has the gift of ministering to all people from diverse backgrounds, by illuminating the word so that it applies directly to today's world. He comes from a pedigree of preachers becoming the 3rd generation in his family to preach the word of God. Randall and his wife Erica, have three children.
