DAVID GREEN

SPEAKER'S BIOGRAPHY

David Green is currently serving as minister at the Church of Christ of Greater New Orleans. He is passionate about community outreach with an emphasis on prison ministry. David is the founder and president of Keep It Real Ministries, which was established to assist the incarcerated, those returning to the community and the family members that are affected. His personal journey has taken him from the streets, to prison, to a personal relationship with Christ that has driven this ministry calling. It is his desire to impact the city of New Orleans for Christ and to help strengthen the local Church through active ministry and Supportive Transitional Living.
